

206 Saxon SIXES

Travel 61,800 Miles Without Stopping

23.5 Miles Gallon of Gasoline

On July 1st, 206 Saxon Dealers in all parts of the country, driving stock model Saxon Sixes, staged a 300 mile non-stop run to prove the remarkable gasoline economy of Saxon "Six."

The winner averaged 34.23 miles per gallon of gasoline. The grand average for the 206 Saxon "Sixes" was 23.5 miles per gallon.

The total distance traveled was 61,800 miles—more than twice around the world—nearly 20 times across the continent. During the entire 61,800 miles not a single motor stopped running.

Men from leading newspaper in each of the 206 cities acted as official observers, and their affidavits certify to the correctness of the records.

Stop for a moment and picture to yourself this remarkable scene in its entirety.

Don't think of just one Saxon "Six" traveling 300 miles without stopping, and averaging 23.5 miles per gallon.

Don't think of just one car "timed to the minute" for a gasoline test on a measured gallon of gas over a specially selected piece of roadway, all conditions ideal.

Think of 206 Saxon "Sixes," each traveling 300 miles without stopping, meeting every condition of road and weather, running through congested city traffic, through mud, through deep sand, through rock strewn canyons, over hills and mountains.

And then the full significance of this average of 23.5 miles per gallon of gasoline will strike you.

This country-wide Saxon "Six" test proves what any Saxon owner could do with his own car. Remember in most instances, each Saxon "Six" carried five passengers.

Ask yourself (if you would know just how great an achievement this is) What other car, of equal size and power at less than $1,000, could match this record.

Yet, after all, the average of 23.5 miles per gallon of gasoline is not the only remarkable thing about this 61,800 mile run.

For there is the fact that not a single one of these 206 motors stopped running once.

There is the fact that no mechanical troubles occurred.

There is the fact of the extraordinary stability and strength of Saxon "Six" that this run establishes.

In no other way could the pledge of STRENGTH, ECONOMY, SERVICE, made to Saxon "Six" owners by the Saxon Motor Car Corporation, be proved more vividly, more clearly, more impressively than by this performance of the car itself.
